

Empowering Local Development Practitioners

Price: 250 Baht (excluding mailing cost)

The Mae FahLuang Foundation under Royal Patronage introduces “The Mae FahLuang Development Manual” series, and its first book “Empowering Local Development Practitioners”, written from our 25 years of experience in poverty alleviation. As part of the development practitioners training course and for the general public interested in community development, this book is meant as a guideline on how target people and communities can be empowered, as well as how development project can sustain themselves in the long run.

For more information on the book or training course, please contact the Knowledge and Learning Centre, the Mae FahLuang Foundation under Royal Patronage:+662 252 7114 ext. 320